International Conference 'Character Education in Latin America: Challenges and Opportunities'

ABSTRACT

Fundamentals of Effective Character Education

McDonnell Professor of Character Education and co-director of the Center for Character and Citizenship at the University of Missouri-St. Louis (USA)

For character education to be effective, it must be based on evidence-based practices and principles. This talk will identify 6 evidence-based principles (Prioritization, Relationships, Intrinsic Motivation, Modeling, Empowerment, and Developmental perspective). Furthermore it will link each to specific evidence-based character education practices.
