

PROGRAMA DE DOCTORADO EN CREATIVIDAD APLICADA

ADMISSION PROFILE

Recommended admission profile

Spanish and foreign students who credit they meet the legal access requirements pursuant to RD 99/2011, preferably with a prior degree in Arts and Humanities, Social and Legal Sciences, Architecture and Engineering or any other field related to design, and master's degrees in the same fields that are research-oriented. The applicant's professional experience and/or graduate training in line with the suggested doctoral research subject shall be very positively regarded.

Other profiles:

1. Students with a prior training in the Undergraduate Degree in Arts and Humanities, Social and Legal Sciences, Architecture and Engineering, or any field regarding design, as well as students with a graduate training in such areas holding Master not oriented to research.
2. Students with a prior training in Science or Health science and with Graduate training in those fields or other fields as part of masters specially oriented towards research.
3. Students with an Undergraduate degree in Science or Health Science and with a Graduate degree in such or other fields through non-research master's degrees.