

What are the psychological needs of depressed patients diagnosed with cancer?

Author: Irene Osinaga

Director Virginia La Rosa Salas

INTRODUCTION

RESULTS

- Early on screening
- Repeated at multiple points throughout treatment. (3)
- 40% M.D. within 1st year (4)

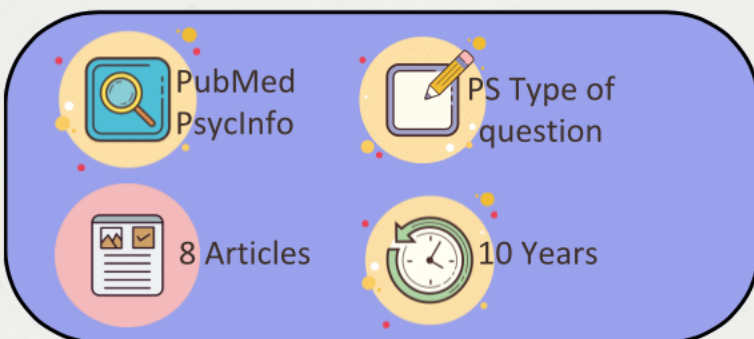

Individualized treatments

- Psychotherapies (5)
 - Cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT)
 - Mindfulness-based stress reduction (MBSR).
- Psychoeducation (5)
 - Cancer
 - Coping strategies for managing stress

OBJETIVE

Get a better understanding of the psychological needs of cancer patients.

METODOLOGY

Oncology patients
OR
Cancer patients
OR
oncologic

AND

Depression
OR Depressed
OR
Depressed patient

AND

Psychological needs
OR
Emotional needs

CONCLUSION

- Anxiety and depression are common in cancer patients
- Need to incorporate these results into the oncologic care
 - Quality of life
 - Treatment adherence.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Universidad de Navarra