

Universidad
de Navarra

School of Economics and Business

The University of Navarra is a leading research university, consistently ranked among the top universities in Spain. Its academic programs provide excellent opportunities for both professors and students. It is a private university founded in 1952 by St. Josemaría Escrivá. The School of Economics and Business is located in Pamplona. The University of Navarra also has campuses in San Sebastián, Barcelona and Madrid.

The University of Navarra invites applicants in the following fields:

Applied Econometrics

Data Analytics

Economics of the Firm

Finance

Job Description

Position type: Assistant Professor, Tenure Track (3+3).

Research: Contribution to the School's research excellence.

Teaching: English programs, 120 hours/year, possibly concentrated in one semester.

Job Qualification

PhD from a relevant research university.

Potential for teaching and research excellence.

Positive and professional attitude towards students

Application Process

Deadline: Rolling application (first screening by November 22nd)

Send job market package to Juan Equiza (jequizag@unav.es) or via econjobmarket.org

Competitive salary, by Spanish standards

Job Market Package

1. Cover letter
2. CV
3. Publishable journal article as a research sample
4. Three letters of recommendation
5. Short essay: What you know about University of Navarra

Interviews / Fly-outs

Interviews will be held online during the European Economic Association (EEA) job market (www.europeanjobmarketofeconomists.org)

Selected candidates may be invited for a fly-out after interview.

More information at www.unav.edu/web/facultad-de-ciencias-economicas-y-empresariales/recruiting-vacancies