

Dear all,

We would like to draw your attention to the colloquium workshop Ethical Issues in Finance and Banking, which will take place on Friday 30 May 2014, School of Economics, University of Navarra (Spain). This workshop is organized by the Research Group Banking and Finance for Society, University of Navarra in collaboration with The Humanistic Management Network and the Enterprise and Humanism Institute.

In this workshop, we will critically reflect on the relationship that Ethics has with Finance and Banking for giving a better service to society. Therefore, we invite scholars interested in rethinking this relationship.

Tentative Program:

9.30 - 9.45      Opening Address.

Alejo Sison. Professor of Business Ethics. University of Navarra
Antonio Moreno. Professor of International Finance. University of Navarra

9.45 - 11.30    Panel 1. Virtuous Investment

"Can we trust the banks?"

Chris Cowton. University of Huddersfield. Queensgate (UK).
Editor in chief Business Ethics: A European Review

"Virtues in Finance and Accounting"

Boudewijn De Bruin. University of Groningen (The Netherlands).

11.30-12.00    Coffee break

12.00-13.45    Panel 2. Shadow Banking

"The shadow banking in the financial markets"

Lev Ratnovski. International Monetary Fund (USA)

"Challenges in regulating shadow banking"

María Abascal. BBVA (Spain).

14.00-16.00    Lunch

Room: M02 Amigos Building.

Please don't hesitate to contact one of the organizers for any question:

Ignacio Ferrero (University of Navarra): jiferrero@unav.es

Alejo J. Sison (University of Navarra): ajison@unav.es

We look forward to welcoming you at the workshop!

Best regards,

Ignacio Ferrero
Alejo J Sison