

If your university has an agreement with the School of Humanities and Social Sciences at the University of Navarra, your university must nominate you to study here. Contact the International office at your home university to learn more about the exchange program.

Once you are nominated, our Department's International Coordinator will send you all the necessary information to begin the application as an exchange student.

To complete a semester with the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, students should have:

- A good command of English (level B2) or Spanish
- Successfully completed at least one academic year (two-semester) at a state-recognized university at the time of application.

We assess applications based on academic achievement, language level, and other merits. Participants can choose up to a total of 30 ECTS and a minimum of 24 ECTS.

Once you are nominated, we will send you all the necessary information, including instructions on how to apply for admission.

You will receive an email with the link to the application platform and an exchange code, needed to process your application. Codes are only given to those students who have been nominated by their home university. We will send the information to the candidates a few days after the nomination deadline.

Please be aware that to apply for admission as an exchange student, you will need the following documents:

-  Scanned passport.
-  Scanned passport-type photo. *Please, refer to the photo guidelines document.
-  Proof of English or Spanish language proficiency.
-  Official academic transcript.
-  An official letter from your university certifying that you have been selected to study at the University of Navarra.
-  Proof of health insurance. Students will not be admitted without proof of health insurance. Students must submit a contract for health insurance valid for the entire duration of their stay at the University of Navarra. The proof of health insurance should include: name of the insured, period of coverage (valid during visiting period), and place of coverage (valid in Spain) . EU residents can submit a copy of their current EU health card (it must be valid for the entire length of your time studying here).
