

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE: SUPERVISORY EXPECTATIONS WORKSHOP—MARCH 6TH

MASTER IN BANKING AND FINANCIAL REGULATION
SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS & BUSINESS | UNIVERSIDAD DE NAVARRA

“In recent years, internal governance issues have received the increasing attention of various international bodies.” Their main effort has been to correct the institutions “weak or superficial internal governance practices as identified in the financial crisis. These faulty practices, while not a direct trigger for the financial crisis, were closely associated with it and so were a key contributory factor.”¹

In the years since, supervisors have increased scrutiny of corporate governance requirements and raised expectations for implementation, particularly in regards to risk management.

The goal of the “Corporate Governance: supervisory expectations” workshop is therefore to provide a forum of discussion among supervisors, regulators, financial institutions and academics.

This workshop is organized by the Master of Banking and Financial Regulation, Universidad de Navarra in collaboration with Promontory.
