the Master's Degree in Economics and Finance at the University of Navarra's School of Economics and Business Administration

2019-2020 Academic Year

Regulation

1. OBJECTIVES AND GENERAL CHARACTERISTICS:

- The objective of this program is to train young graduates in university activity.
- The training period will normally last 10 months, which may be extended by two months.
- Recipients of these scholarships will hold the status of Teaching Assistant at the University of Navarra's School of Economics and Business Administration.
- Receipt of this scholarship is incompatible with any other work, professional or otherwise, and receipt of unemployment benefit, unless expressly stated to the contrary.
- It is hereby expressly stated that these scholarships are not designed for completion of doctoral dissertations and are therefore not affected by the provisions of Royal Decree 63/2006, which approves the Regulations for Research Personnel in Training.

2. REQUIREMENTS FOR APPLICANTS:

- To hold a diploma, undergraduate degree, engineering degree or architecture degree, or be a student in the final year of a degree.
- Applicants will have preferably obtained their degree within the last three years.
- To be enrolled in the Master's Degree in Economics and Finance at the University of Navarra for the 2019-2020 academic year.
- To demonstrate an academic transcript record with good performance in the degree program that provides access to the master's degree.

3. RESPONSABILITIES FOR APPLICANTS:

- At the time of submitting the application, applicants must have finished or be in their final year of the study program that provides them with access to the master's degree. If awarded a scholarship, this will be contingent upon successful completion of the previous study program by the time the master's degree program commences, including the Final Year Project in degree programs that require it.
- To complete as an average of 40 hours per month' support work in the departments of Economics or Business Administration at the School of Economics and Business Administration. Applicants will help Faculty professors doing some tasks such as correcting students' work or exams and attending some classes.
- To report to the School Board if there is any relevant incident that may affect normal performance of the teaching support plan proposed by the School.
- To submit to the School Board, once the scholarship term has finished, a report outlining the work carried out.
- Failure to comply with these requirements will result in the immediate suspension of the scholarship.
- Simply by submitting an application, scholarship candidates waive their right to take any kind of legal action or out-of-court action against the committee's decision or the decisions made by the School, after hearing the department or university professor responsible for managing or supervising the scholarship recipient's training plan.

4. APPLICATION FORMS AND DOCUMENTATION:

- Application form.
- Photocopy of DNI or Passport.
- Photocopy of the academic record and, where applicable, proof of having received the degree..

5. SELECTION:

- The assessment and selection of candidates will be carried out by the School Board.
- The applications will be assessed based on the applicants' academic performance and accomplishments, other information provided in the application form, and how well suited they are to the specific characteristics of the different programs offered by the departments.

6. DEADLINE AND LOCATION FOR SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS:

Applications must be submitted to the Administrative Office of the School of Economics and Business Administration from June 01 - June 30, 2019. Applications received after this deadline will not be accepted. Applicants may be submitted in person or sent by mail to the following address:
