

Universidad
de Navarra

Facultad de Ciencias

Marine Biology Diploma Guidelines

Students enrolled in the Bachelor's Degree in Biology have the opportunity to obtain the Marine Biology Diploma through an academic stay at the University of Tromsø (Norway).

Programme overview

- The study period lasts one full academic year.
- Students must complete a total of 60 ECTS credits.
- The selected courses must meet the academic and content requirements established by the Academic Coordinator of the Bachelor's Degree in Biology.
- Course selection will be subject to the course offer available to exchange students at the University of Tromsø.

Places and selection process

- A total of 5 places are available at the University of Tromsø.
- To apply, students must participate in the standard selection process for international exchange programmes.
- Places are allocated according to the academic record ranking, provided that applicants meet all the requirements for international mobility.

Detailed information on the application procedure, deadlines and required documentation can be found on the School's website.

Eligibility requirements

Academic year 2026/2027

Applicants must meet all of the following requirements at the time of application:

- Provide proof of a B2 level of English, obtained no more than two years prior to the application date.
- Have a minimum grade point average of 6.5.
- Not have more than two courses in third examination attempt.
- Not be enrolled in any course in fifth examination attempt or higher.